Mr. Leo Cherne, Executive Director
The Research Institute of America, Inc.
589 Fifth Avenue
New York 17, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Cherne:

I am sorry for the delay in replying to your letter of January 12 but I have been attempting to arrange my schedule so that I might take advantage of your kind invitation to attend the dinner and presentation of the "Living History of the Critical Years: 1935-1960."

As I mentioned to you in my letter of December 19, I had a previous commitment out of the country the latter part of April. Unfortunately, I am unable to rearrange matters so that I can join you at the Waldorf on April 27th much as I would like to do so. While I regret that I will be unable to be present, I certainly want to take this opportunity to wish you every success in your program.

With best wishes.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Stan:

The Director wonders if you know of any others who are attending this dinner besides those named in Mr. Cherne's latest letter.

Also, the DCI has still not quite decided whether or not he should accept an invitation to what appears to be a function designed to enhance the public relations and business of the hosts. What do you think?

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR:

1. This memorandum recommends action in paragraph 8.
2. The Research Institute of America, is a private, commercial organization established to serve business for a fee. It furnishes advice on economics, legislation, management, taxation, and industrial and human relations. It tries to help business firms increase sales, cut costs, reduce taxes, and increase profits. It prepares periodic and special reports aimed to serve business executives, salesmen, and tax specialists. It has been in operation at least since 1935. It sells its services.
3. Mr. Leo Cherne, Executive Director, is a lawyer who was formerly with Tax Research Institute of America. Before World War II, he did some lecturing at Army War College and U. S. Military Academy. He was adviser on taxation to General MacArthur in 1946. He is a director of Freedom House.
4. Mr. Carl Hovgard, President of the Research Institute since 1935, is also engaged in oil exploration and production, headquarters, Abilene, Texas, and tungsten mining in Arizona. He is prominent in yacht clubs.
5. The Research Institute of America has four classes of membership:
 - a. Executive membership for which it charged $180. a year, included weekly mailings of staff studies and regular reports on economic trends.
 - b. Sales membership for which it charged a company $15. a month, plus $9. per month per person supervising salesmen, plus $2.50 per month per salesman, included materials designed to help build sales volume.
 - c. Associate membership for plant executives from foreman to company president, for which it charged a company $432. for two years, plus $216. for key executives for two years, included bi-weekly mailings on management problems plus reports as prepared.

- d. Tax service membership, for which it charged $231. for the Tax Control Coordinator, and lesser amounts for lesser services, included materials on preventive tax planning.

6. Publications by the Institute include such topics as Making the Most of Contracts, Report to Management, Communist New Economic Challenge, and Ousting Communist Unions.

7. The idea of listing 100 Americans of differing backgrounds--politically, socially, culturally, financially--in a ballroom attended by 3,000 leading businessmen, educators, etc. with TV and Radio and other Press coverage is a magnificent public relations achievement. It gives the customers who will be at the banquet a spectacle worthy of their patronage and it honors such diverse personalities as Sherman Adams and Senator Kennedy, General MacArthur and former President Truman, Lewis L. Strauss and J. Robert Oppenheimer, General Robert E. Wood and Paul G. Hoffman, Richard M. Nixon and James A. Farley, etc. etc.

8. There is no good reason why the Director should not attend with these other honorable people such as Alfred M. Landon and Norman Thomas. His presence and theirs will add to the prestige of this valuable and honorable Research Institute and at the same time will give some public recognition to the honored guests. It is a function, however, that the Director should not attend if he has something more important to do that night.

Director, Central Intelligence Agency

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Many thanks for your kind answer to my letter of December 14, regarding the presentation of the "Living History of the Critical Years: 1935-1960" and the Research Institute Anniversary Dinner on April 27 at the Waldorf. I realize the difficulties which your schedule presents in connection with your attendance at this occasion. However, in any case, I wanted to let you know that the results of our invitation have been quite gratifying. A great number of those who have been invited intend to be with us. A few of them are Ralph Bunche, Robert Frost, General Lucius Clay, Alfred Sloan, Jr., Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Henry Cabot Lodge, Bernard Baruch, James A. Farley, Henry Wallace, Charles E. Wilson. I sincerely hope that it will be possible also for you to attend; we shall proceed to prepare the material referring to your significant contribution to the growth of our country, since Professor Nevins will want to make the reference, even if circumstances do not permit your actual presence at the occasion.

Kindest personal regards and best wishes for the New Year.

Sincerely yours,

Leo Cherne
Executive Director
